

El Rancho Unified School District
English Language Arts

e Level: 7

Text Title: Papa's Parrot

El Rancho Unified School District
English Language Arts

Dependent Questions:

Which words from the text show that Papa's Parrot is written in third person-omniscient point of view?

From whose perspective or point of view does each character have?

Does the author's word choice help to develop the narrator's omniscient point of view?

Does Harry evolve from the beginning to the end of the story? Cite textual evidence to support your claim.

Academic Vocabulary:

analyze
setting
character
character traits
plot
infer inference author point of view develop omniscient evolve arguments
claims address
relevant evidence topic

El Rancho Unified School District
English Language Arts

Performance Tasks:

Thesize how Harry and his father’s relationship will be when his recovers. Write a multi-paragraph essay, citing textual evidence port your hypothesis.

Essential Skills:

- Analyze the elements of story
- Describe how characters change throughout a story
- Describe how story elements influence the characters as the plot moves towards resolution
- Understand and identify various points of view
- Contrast points of view
- Establish and maintain a formal style
- Use words, phrases, and clauses to create cohesion
- Understand the purpose of writing
- Understand expository text structure
- Write a multi-paragraph essay
- Understand purpose and audience
- Know how to write a clear, concise thesis
- Be able to use transitions to create cohesion and clarify relationships among ideas and concepts

non Core State Standards:

3
6