

El Rancho Unified School District's Theoretical Framework for Student Achievement

THEORY OF ACTION: We are committed to being a dynamic and innovative learning community that prepares each and every student for success now and in the future. Students will be challenged to become college and career ready and lifelong learners.

